Factual Allegations

Teleconference Services

11.

As stated above, Conference America provides a variety of telephonic and internet-based teleconferencing services to individuals and companies.

12.

On February 5, 2001, bioMerieux and Conference America executed a Price Protection Agreement whereby Conference America was to provide discounted rates to bioMerieux for a period of three years.² This February 5, 2001 agreement was subsequently amended on April 30, 2003,³ and January 31, 2005⁴ (collectively the "Price Protection Agreement"). The January 31, 2005 amendment extended the Price Protection Agreement until August 6, 2007.⁵

13.

Under the Price Protection Agreement bioMerieux was to receive discounted rates in exchange for using Conference America as its sole vendor for teleconferencing services.⁶

14.

On August 6, 2007, the Price Protection Agreement expired. Following expiration of the Price Protection Agreement, bioMerieux continued to use the teleconferencing services provided by Conference America from August 6, 2007, to December 21, 2007.

15.

The Price Protection Agreement acknowledged that “services provided will be billed at the then effective [Conference America] list prices at the time such services are provided unless a separate written agreement executed by both parties is in effect at the time such services are provided in which case the prices in the agreement shall be applicable.”⁷ Upon expiration of the Price Protection Agreement, the discounts specified under that written agreement expired and bioMerieux’s use of Conference America’s teleconferencing services became subject to Conference America’s standard pricing and services terms and conditions. Such standard terms are set forth on Conference America’s website www.yourcall.com.⁸

16.

On September 4, 2007, Conference America invoiced bioMerieux for $34,194.39 for teleconferencing services that Conference America provided to bioMerieux from August 1, 2007, to August 31, 2007 (the “September Invoice”).⁹ From August 1, 2007 through August 6, 2007 Conference America invoiced bioMerieux at the discounted prices according to the parties’ Price Protection Agreement; from August 7, 2007 to August 31, 2007 Conference America invoiced bioMerieux at standard prices.¹⁰ Payment of the September Invoice was due September 24, 2007.¹¹

17.

On October 1, 2007, Conference America invoiced bioMerieux at Conference America’s standard prices for $41,921.04 for teleconferencing services Conference America provided to bioMerieux from September 1, 2007, to September 30, 2007 (the “October Invoice”).¹² Payment of the October Invoice was due October 21, 2007.¹³

18.

On November 1, 2007, Conference America invoiced bioMerieux at Conference America’s standard prices for $43,641.97 for teleconferencing services Conference America provided to bioMerieux from October 1, 2007 to October 31,

2007 (the “November Invoice”).¹⁴ Payment of the November Invoice was due November 21, 2007.¹⁵

19.

On December 4, 2007, Conference America invoiced bioMerieux at Conference America’s standard prices for $41,354.97 for teleconferencing services Conference America provided to bioMerieux from November 1, 2007, to November 30, 2007 (the “December Invoice”).¹⁶ Payment of the December Invoice was due December 24, 2007.¹⁷ 20.

On December 12, 2007, bioMerieux sent a letter to Conference America informing it that bioMerieux wished to discontinue all services with Conference America effective December 21, 2007.¹⁸ With that letter bioMerieux also sent a check for $40,964.63, purportedly in payment, at the expired Price Protection Agreement prices, of the September, October, and November invoices, which in fact totaled $119,757.40.

21.

On December 18, 2007, Conference America responded in writing to bioMerieux’s December 12, 2007 letter.¹⁹ Among other things, Conference

America requested that bioMerieux confirm that its partial payment was not intended to prejudice Conference America's right to collect the full amount invoiced.²⁰

22.

On December 20, 2007, bioMerieux responded by letter and disputed that it owed any more than $40,964.63.²¹ bioMerieux did not clarify whether it intended its check to prejudice Conference America's right to collect the full invoiced amount. Accordingly, Conference America has not deposited that check.

23.

On January 2, 2008, Conference America invoiced bioMerieux at Conference America's standard prices for $22,618.74 for the teleconferencing services Conference America provided from December 1, 2007, to December 21, 2007 (the "January Invoice").²² Payment of the January Invoice was due January 22, 2008.

24.

On February 7, 2008, bioMerieux sent Conference America a check for $23,360.62 purporting to be in payment, at the expired Price Protection Agreement prices, of the December and January invoices, which in fact totaled $63,973.71.²³

²³ (See letter from Drue A. Moore to Rob Pirnie (Feb. 7, 2008), a true and exact copy of which is attached as Ex. M.)

Because the letter accompanying payment appeared to be intended to prejudice Conference America's rights,²⁴ Conference America has not deposited that check.

To date, bioMerieux has not paid Conference America for the teleconferencing services provided by Conference America from August 1, 2007, to December 21, 2007. bioMerieux's outstanding balance owed to Conference America for teleconferencing services provided by Conference America from August 1, 2007, to December 21, 2007, is $183,731.11.

Deactivation Services

26.

On December 20, 2007, bioMerieux requested by letter that Conference America, "discontinue and disconnect all dial-in and password information issued to bioMerieux."²⁵ On December 21, 2007, Conference America responded by letter seeking clarification that bioMerieux in fact wanted Conference America to "deactivate all bioMerieux accounts as of December 21, 2007," and informing bioMerieux that the parties are "governed by our Services Terms and Conditions set forth on [Conference America's] web site, www.yourcall.com."²⁶ On January 2, 2008, bioMerieux replied by email and confirmed that bioMerieux wished to deactivate all accounts as of December 21, 2007.²⁷ On January 4, 2008, Conference America confirmed by email that all accounts had been deactivated effective December 21, 2007.²⁸

27.

As stated on its website, Conference America charges a $74.95 service fee for each customer account that it deactivates.²⁹ Conference America properly deactivated all 627 bioMerieux accounts as of December 21, 2007, in accordance with bioMerieux's request.

28.

On January 2, 2008, Conference America invoiced bioMerieux for $53,525.77 for the deactivation services rendered as of December 21, 2007 ("Deactivation Invoice").³⁰ Payment of this amount to Conference America was due on or before January 22, 2008.³¹

29.

On February 7, 2008, bioMerieux informed Conference America by letter that it disputed the invoiced amount of $53,525.77.³²

³¹ (Id.)

³² (See Ex. M.)

30.

To date, bioMerieux has not paid Conference America for the deactivation services provided as of December 21, 2007.

Count I - Breach of Contract

31.

Conference America realleges and incorporates paragraphs 1 through 30 of its Complaint as if fully restated herein.

32.

As set forth above, Conference America and bioMerieux entered into one or more valid, binding contracts with each other. The terms governing the period of August 1, 2007, through August 6, 2007, are detailed in the parties' Price Protection Agreement, under which the parties agreed that Conference America would provide teleconferencing services to bioMerieux. The terms governing the period after August 6, 2007, are set forth in Conference America's Terms and Conditions appearing on its website, under which the parties agreed that Conference America would provide teleconferencing and account deactivation services to bioMerieux.

33.

Conference America fully performed under the parties' contracts by properly providing the teleconferencing and account deactivation services to bioMerieux.

34.

bioMerieux has breached the parties' contracts by failing to perform its obligations under them, and specifically by refusing to fully pay for teleconferencing and account deactivation services that Conference America rendered to it.

35.

As a direct and proximate result of bioMerieux's breach of contract, Conference America has been damaged by bioMerieux in the amount of $237,256.88.

36.

Additionally, under the contractual terms set forth in the parties Price Protection Agreement and Conference America's website Terms and Conditions, bioMerieux owes Conference America interest of 1.5% per month on unpaid sums due under the September – January Invoices and Deactivation Invoice, accruing from the date payment of each invoice was due.³³ bioMerieux also owes Conference America expenses and legal fees incurred in collecting the above unpaid sum of money.³⁴

³³ (Ex. A at 7 (Att. C "Payment Terms"); Ex. D ¶ 5b.)

³⁴ (Ex. A at 7 (Att. C "Payment Terms"); Ex. D ¶ 5a.)

Count II – Unjust Enrichment

37.

Conference America realleges, restates, and reaffirms paragraphs 1 through 36, as if fully set forth herein.

38.

Conference America has provided services valuable to bioMerieux, including but not limited to teleconferencing services and associated services and account deactivation services for which Conference America expected it would receive compensation at the time it rendered the services, and bioMerieux has failed to pay Conference America for those services. Conference America has conferred a benefit to bioMerieux for which it is liable to Conference America.

39.

As a result of bioMerieux's acceptance of services provided by Conference America and subsequent failure and refusal to pay Conference America for those services, bioMerieux has been unjustly enriched, and Conference America has been damaged, in an amount not less than $237,256.88, representing the value of the benefit conferred upon bioMerieux.

WHEREFORE, Conference America respectfully makes its demand for a jury trial on all issues so triable and respectfully requests that the Court enter judgment in its favor and against bioMerieux on all Counts contained in Conference America's Verified Complaint as follows:

- a. awarding Conference America damages for bioMerieux's breach of contract, including $237,256.88;
- b. awarding Conference America damages for bioMerieux's unjust enrichment, including $237,256.88;
- c. awarding Conference America interest of 1.5% per month on the above unpaid sum of money, accruing from the date that payment for each invoice was due;
- d. awarding Conference America expenses and legal fees incurred in collecting the above unpaid sum of money;
- e. awarding Conference America pre- and post-judgment interest; and
- f. awarding Conference America such other and further relief as the Court deems just and equitable.

Re: Contract for Telecommunications Services Dated February 1, 2001
(as amended April 30, 2003 and January 31, 2005) (the "Contract")

Invoice Date: November 1, 2007
Invoice Number: CONS00018361
Amount: $43,641.97

Invoice Date: October 1, 2007
Invoice Number: CONS000178626
Amount: $41,921.04

Invoice Date: September 4, 2007
Invoice Number: CONS000176160
Amount: $34,194.39

Dear Mr. Pirnie:

On behalf of bioMerieux, Inc., I am writing to discontinue all services with Conference America, effective December 21, 2007. As you know, the rates reflected in the above invoices were disputed upon receipt and never agreed by bioMerieux, Inc. In fact, prior to the expiration of the Contract, we agreed to continue obtaining services at the rates set forth in the Contract while we discussed new Contract terms (e.g., pricing and length of a new contract term). It was only after you incorrectly believed that bioMerieux entered into a new agreement for the same services with your competitor (Genesys) that Conference America unilaterally attempted to increase the Contract rates by more than 300% and 500% greater than current market rates.

I informed you in writing on September 27 that bioMerieux had not entered into a new contract and that it wished to continue its negotiations with Conference America. Indeed, in the same email, I provided a proposed, end of year (Dec 31, 2007) extension to the then-expired Contract in the form of a draft amendment per your request. On October 5, again at your request, I provided a revised, one-year extension to the then-expired Contract in the form of a draft amendment. Both draft amendments contemplated no change in the Contract rates, as we discussed and agreed.

More than two months after the expiration of the Contract – during which time Conference America was unilaterally attempting to invoice bioMerieux at more than three times the Contract rates – Conference America made its first written offer. On October 9, Conference America proposed if bioMerieux entered a three-year extension to the Contract (that would include an undetermined amount of business from another company, Silliker, Inc.), then Conference America would issue credits in equal installments over three years against charges for usage after August 6, 2007 that exceeded the Contract rates. I immediately informed you in writing by email and by voice mail that proposal needed to be discussed because it was problematic. Conference America is losing our business because it:

- a. breached our oral agreement about the Contract rates during our renegotiation;
- b. engaged in bad faith behavior and unconscionable bargaining conduct; and
- c. failed to offer market competitive rates.

Enclosed is payment for the above invoices and the December invoice (when received) will be remitted pursuant to the Contract rates in accordance with the parties' good faith, oral agreement that was reached prior to the expiration of the Contract. Any further communication regarding this matter should be sent to the attention of our corporate counsel, Drue A. Moore, Esq.

bioMerieux, Inc. reserves all of its rights.

Regards,

Kevin Griffin

December 18, 2007

Mr. Kevin Griffin
Purchasing Manager
bioMerieux, Inc.
100 Rodolphe St.
Durham, NC 27712

Dear Kevin:

I received your letter dated December 12, 2007. With respect to your plans to discontinue use of our services, BioMerieux is, of course, free to use or not use Conference America's services at any time. However, BioMerieux is responsible for paying for all services it uses, whether before or after December 21, 2007. The terms and conditions applicable to such use may be found on our website, www.yourcall.com.

Your statements concerning the pricing reflected in our September 4, November 1 and October 1 invoices are incorrect. The Price Protection Program applicable to BioMerieux expired on August 6, 2007. After that date, all pricing reverted to our standard pricing. Your suggestion that Conference America ever agreed, orally or otherwise, to extend the Price Protection Program beyond August 6, 2007 is incorrect. There was no such agreement at any time. In fact, the first time you even requested an extension was on September 20, 2007, some six weeks after the Price Protection Program had expired. Although we have discussed an extension since that date, we have been unable to agree on mutually acceptable terms. Meanwhile, BioMerieux has continued to use our services.

I have not been able to determine from your letter how you calculated the amount represented by your check number 614628 for $40,964.63. That amount does not correspond to the amount invoiced, which is $161,112.37. If you will confirm in writing that this payment is not intended to affect Conference America's right to collect the remainder of the amount invoiced, we will deposit this check and credit your account accordingly. If we do not receive such confirmation promptly, in light of the tone and statements in your letter we will proceed on the assumption that the check was intended to prejudice Conference America's rights to the remainder and we will not deposit it or credit your account.

Please bear in mind that BioMerieux is and remains liable for interest on all past-due amounts as well as Conference America's legal fees and other expenses of collection.

Very truly yours,

Rob Pirnie

Dear Mr. Pirnie:

I am writing in response to your letter addressed to Kevin Griffin dated December 18. Your letter pretends that the parties' contract remained in place after its expiration, except bioMerieux agreed to pay 300% more than the contract rates. We disagree.

We orally agreed to pay for services received at the contract rates while the parties negotiated a new written contract. The day after we received the first invoice that contradicted the parties' invoice, we disputed that invoice, reaffirmed the parties' oral agreement (at the contract rates) and continued to negotiate in good faith for a new contract. We honored our oral agreement with recent payment ($40,964.63). Our calculation of that figure is based on service usage and the contract rates. We await an invoice for the final billing period, which we will pay at the contract rates per the parties' oral agreement.

As you know from our letter dated December 12, we no longer wish to obtain services from ConferenceAmerica. Effective tomorrow, please discontinue and disconnect all dial-in and password information issued to bioMerieux, Inc.

bioMerieux, Inc. hereby reiterates its dispute of any charges contrary to the parties' oral agreement. All communication regarding this matter should be directed to my attention.

Yours truly,

Drue A. Moore
